When I have God for my treasure I have all things in One. Many ordinary treasures may be denied me, or if I am allowed to have them, the enjoyment of them will be so tempered that they will never be necessary to my happiness. Or if I must see them go, one after another, I will scarcely feel a sense of loss, for having the Source of all things I have in One all satisfaction, all pleasure, all delight. Whatever I may lose I have actually lost nothing, for I now have it all in One, and I have it purely, legitimately, and forever. Tozer, Pursuit of God.
