INTRODUCTION:

Solomon delivers three directives intended to help people find happiness in a broken world:

- 1. Come to grips with the reality that sinful man's silly solutions to life's prickly problems will always be unsatisfactory (5:8-9).

2. Recognize the truth that the relentless accumulation of worldly wealth will aggravate, rather than satisfy, mankind's deepest longings (5:10-17).

3. Worship God (5:18-20).
